We thank the anonymous referees for their time and their efforts to improve the science and the presentation of our work. In the attached pdf document, we respond to each of the referees' comments (which are in italics). Please note that because of the structure of the Biogeosciences Discussions review process, we do not provide a revised manuscript at this stage but instead provide an indication of where and how we will revise the paper, if given the chance.

Please also note the supplement to this comment:
