We thank all the Referees and Danial Orange for their constructive suggestions and comments, which helped to improve the manuscript. Almost all of the comments have been applied (see the individual replies).

We are grateful for the comments by all referees and included a sentence in the section Acknowledgments.

After submission of the original version of the manuscript, we became aware of two mistakes that we corrected:

The sequence of co-authors was not correct but now follows the alphabetic order between the first and last authors.

tween the first and last authors.

We integrated a reference to the PhD thesis of Gopika Suresh and thank her for her ambitious work in the section Acknowledgments.

We hope, with applying the modification to the manuscript, it is now acceptable for publication.
