Dear participants of the course “Critical Thinking in Ecological and Environmental Sciences”, Dear Georgios Kazanidis,

Thank you very much for your suggestions and comments! We very much appreciate comments from the broader scientific community within this review format. You made some very helpful points, some of which we already addressed in our replies to the referees to which we would ask you to refer to as well. Please refer to the supplement to this comment for our replies to your comments in detail.

On behalf of all authors,

C1
